EDVARD

"I've enjoyed the many opportunities offered by Launceston College Sixth Form, including the Aspire Programme, where I've been able to work with professors in physics and chemistry, expanding my knowledge beyond the specification. I was thrilled to be able to study more than just 3 subjects, and to have taken part in the maths challenges, and the chemistry and physics olympiads, as well as several other external competitions!"

