

Bricklaying

Course title – Bricklaying (6705) Level 2

Exam board – City and Guilds

Qualification title - Level 1 Diploma in Bricklaying

Specification link -

<https://www.cityandguilds.com/qualifications-and-apprenticeships/construction/trades/6705-bricklaying/#tab=information&acc=level1>

Unit titles -

Unit 202/602 Principles of building construction, information and communication.

Unit 203 Producing thin joint masonry and masonry cladding.

Unit 204 Building solid walling, isolated and attached piers.

Unit 205 Interpreting working drawings to set out masonry structures.

Unit 206 Construct cavity walling forming masonry structures.

Unit 201/601 Health, safety and welfare in construction.

Unit descriptions –

202 -Understand how to select types of building information, environmental considerations in relation to construction, the construction of foundations, construction of internal and external walls, construction of floors, construction of roofs, and how to communicate in the workplace.

203 - How to construct thin joint masonry for use with concrete and steel-framed buildings. 204 includes - How to plan and select resources for practical tasks, erect solid walling to required specification, erect isolated and attached piers to required specification.

205 - How to interpret information to establish setting-out requirements, prepare construction sites for setting-out activities, select resources for setting out work and set out regular-shaped masonry structures on level ground.

206 - How to plan and select resources for practical tasks, how to erect cavity walling to required specification, how to form openings in cavity walling.

201/601 - Health and safety, regulations rights and responsibilities.

Equipment required - Protective footwear, there may be a requirement to have construction tools.

Entry Requirements - City & Guilds does not set entry requirements for these qualifications.

However, we ensure that candidates have the potential and opportunity to gain the qualifications successfully.

Any other relevant information - The qualification forms the technical certificate for the Construction Building Apprenticeship.

Possible progression routes – Candidates can progress into employment or to the following City & Guilds qualifications: Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Trowel Occupations, Level 3 Diploma in Bricklaying.